

A Citizen's Perspective

A Monthly Forum to Discuss Current Issues

Monday October 1

7:30 – 9pm at the Tredyffrin Library

582 Upper Gulph Road, Wayne

RACISM TOWNHALL

Lead by Anita Friday, Esquire; Founder, Open Hearts: A Path to Racial Healing

The presentation asks the question:

Suspicion....Why and at What Cost?

The hope is that after participating in the event, we can help create a meaningful dialogue around race, power, suspicion, justice, and how we can become the change agents that are so badly needed.

If this town hall interests you or you are ready to take the knowledge further, there is a three-part workshop which delves deeper into this subject. If interested contact Anita Friday at ayfriday@gmail.com

Please join us as Anita Friday leads us in a discussion of RACISM and what we can and should be doing about it.

We have the room starting at 7pm, so, please come a few minutes early for some casual discussion.

Please feel free to share this invitation broadly—all are welcome. We hope you can join us...and bring a friend or two.

Any questions, please contact Jerry Henige, jhenige@verizon.net, 610 341-0756
