

Mary M. McCracken for Tredyffrin Township Auditor

Professionally, Mary brings 30+ years of wide-ranging banking/financial services experience, including municipal finance, to the position of Township Auditor. She is well qualified to fulfill the duties of the office. She currently serves as Vice President of Implementations at Wells Fargo Bank, where she has worked in a number of executive management positions since 2006. Before that she served as a vice-president at Chase Manhattan Bank and at JP Morgan Chase.

Mary has lived in Wayne, Tredyffrin Township, with her two sons, Daniel and Nathan, for 25 years; both attended New Eagle Elementary, Valley Forge Middle School and Conestoga High School. Her volunteer contributions revolved around her children's numerous school and sporting activities.

Mary possesses a desire to give back to the community. As an avid supporter of voting rights and our individual responsibility to help make the community a better place to live, she currently serves as a committeeperson in the M2 precinct of Tredyffrin Township.

She is a graduate of Penn State with a B.S. in Business.

The Elected Auditor serves a 4-year term providing oversight to the annual independent audit and additional oversight into the township's finances.
