

Sharon N. Humble for Tredyffrin Supervisor-at-Large

Sharon Humble has been a resident of Tredyffrin Township for over 19 years. Moving to Chesterbrook in 2000, she and her husband, Doug Jones moved to Berwyn in 2002. She and Doug have two sons who attend T/E schools.

Born and raised in San Antonio, Texas, Sharon has Philadelphia roots, tracing her ancestry to Uriah Humble, who was born in Philadelphia in 1705, and to William Fitzwater, who emigrated to colonial America in 1682 aboard the Welcome with William Penn.

Sharon has been a practicing attorney for 24 years. She retired from the national law firm of Linebarger Goggan Blair & Sampson, LLP on January 1, 2018 and opened a small office on Lancaster Avenue in Berwyn, PA this past spring. Ms. Humble headed up Linebarger's Philadelphia office as its Managing Partner for eighteen years. The firm represents 2,200 governmental clients nationwide, focusing on the collection of government receivables, real estate taxes and business taxes.

Sharon earned her Juris Doctorate from St. Mary's University School of Law in San Antonio, Texas, and earned her B.A. with a major in Political Science and Economics from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

As your supervisor, Sharon will bring her experience representing local, county and state government bodies and years of management experience, along with her love of our community and desire to help keep Tredyffrin a well-run, safe and affordable place to live. She has been involved in her sons' schools and PTA's, T&E Care, and her church community.
